DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-12, 38-43 and 47-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 2000-44269 in view of Drouart, Kaiser, Ryoji, Gilbreath, Haney and Collins.

See how the art was previously applied in the rejection of 9/20/2004.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 21 December 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

It is argued that the rejection "states that it would be obvious to replace the O-ring system of Koaizawa with the sealing washer of Ryoji. This is simply not true. The rejection does not specify any specific washer nor the replacement of a "system". See the rejection for what the Office held to be obvious and why.

It is further argued that O-rings and sealing washers are not equivalents. The rejection provides evidence which proves they are equivalents. Applicant merely alleges they are not equivalents with neither evidence nor rationale as to why they are not equivalents. Nor is there any discussion as to any problem with the Office's evidence which proves they are equivalents.

Art Unit: 1731

It is further argued that it should be recognized that the intended function of Koaizawa would be destroyed. This is another allegation with no evidence or rationale to support it.

If Applicant is suggesting that one could not put Ryoji's washer into Koaizawa's apparatus, such is not deemed to be relevant as follows:

From MPEP 2145:

III. ARGUING THAT PRIOR ART DEVICES ARE NOT PHYSICALLY COMBINABLE

"The test for obviousness is not whether the features of a secondary reference may be bodily incorporated into the structure of the primary reference.... Rather, the test is what the combined teachings of those references would have suggested to those of ordinary skill in the art." In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 425, 208 USPQ 871, 881 (CCPA 1981). See also In re Sneed, 710 F.2d 1544, 1550, 218 USPQ 385, 389 (Fed. Cir. 1983) ("[I]t is not necessary that the inventions of the references be physically combinable to render obvious the invention under review."); and In re Nievelt, 482 F.2d 965, 179 USPQ 224, 226 (CCPA 1973) ("Combining the teachings of references does not involve an ability to combine their specific structures.").

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of
